Volunteers will be supervised by a full time City of Brenham employee at all times.

Definition of Volunteer: An individual who performs service for a public agency for civic, charitable or humanitarian reasons. A volunteer performs these services without promise, expectation or receipt of compensation for services rendered. If these conditions are met, the individual will not be subject to FLSA regulations.

I understand that I am not an employee of the City of Brenham and do not have the benefits provided to employees, except personal protective equipment as needed, and worker’s compensation coverage.

I understand that information regarding the persons and situations I work with is confidential.

I understand that some volunteer positions require a criminal history background check and I agree to that requirement.

All of the information on this application is true and accurate.
