The City of Brenham, as a governmental body, is subject to the Public Information Act, Chapter 552 Government Code, which guarantees the public access to public information in custody of governmental bodies with few exceptions. The law requires the City of allow the public access to any documents, letters, memoranda, reports, etc. unless law excepts them. The law also requires the City to request from the Texas Attorney General, a decision as to whether the information may be withheld, if there has been no previous determination that the information falls into one of the excepted categories. The City must request an Attorney General's decision within ten (10) business days of receiving the request for information or the information is presumed public. The Public Information Request Procedure is not intended to hamper the free flow of information between the City and the general public. The procedure's sole intent is to centralize the processing of open records requests so as to better monitor the City's compliance with the Public Information Act.
