City of Brenham Park Restrooms Closed to Reduce the Spread of COVID-19

The City of Brenham will be closing City park and downtown restrooms to help reduce the spread of COVID-19, effective April 1, 2020. Residents are encouraged to continue enjoying the green space. “We still want the public to enjoy the outdoor experience but for the safety of the public and our staff these facilities will be closed,” said Dane Rau, Director of Public Works.
